

Awareness in Agriculture Livestock Security

Circle One
Pre-Test Post-Test

1. Who do you call first if you suspect a foreign animal disease?

2-5. What are four disease prevention strategies?

6. What sanitation device works well when kept clean, but if left dirty, actually aids in the spread of disease?

7. The colostrum from one cow should be given to how many calves?

8. How soon should a cow be milked for colostrum after calving?

9. What 100 percent fatal, neurological disease is endemic to North Dakota?

10. If blisters are present on the mouth of an animal, what type of diseases should be considered as the cause?

Awareness in Agriculture Livestock Security

Circle One
Pre-Test Post-Test

Answers

1. Who do you call first if you suspect a foreign animal disease?

Answer: the state veterinarian (currently Dr. Susan Keller)

2-5. What are four disease prevention strategies?

Answers: quarantine, disease testing, vaccination, sanitation

6. What sanitation device works well when kept clean, but if left dirty, actually aids in the spread of disease?

Answer: footbath

7. The colostrum from one cow should be given to how many calves?

Answer: one

8. How soon should a cow be milked for colostrum after calving?

Answer: within one hour

9. What 100 percent fatal, neurological disease is endemic to North Dakota?

Answer: rabies

10. If blisters are present on the mouth of an animal, what type of diseases should be considered as the cause?

Answer: vesicular diseases