

Another Thought for the Day

Change for the better means data or records to guide value in, value out, direct expense and overhead within a beef operation. Real change, at least the right change, will not occur until all these values are determined. That is what makes the beef business a professional business.

