JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

Program Director
Position open until filled

The Washington Grain Commission based in Spokane, Washington seeks a dynamic career-oriented individual who wants to grow with the Commission. This is a long-term employment opportunity in which the new Program Director will support the Commission’s implementation of market promotion, research, and education programs on behalf of small grain farmers in Washington State.

The ideal candidate must have a proven ability to analyze data and present succinct results. The candidate will need to have strong skills in analytics, economics, computer programs, database management, research, and administrative project management.

Additionally the ideal candidate needs to be a talented communicator; highly creative in public outreach; is effective at leveraging the benefits of social media; and has documented writing skills. Candidate should have excellent organizational and time management skills, and be capable of working independently and in close collaboration with other professionals as part of the Commission’s Team.

Foreign language capability is beneficial. The position requires flexibility for travel.

Candidate must have a Bachelor or Master’s Degree; a degree in an agricultural related field is preferred. Three to five years’ experience preferred. Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience.

The Commission is a Washington State agency and an equal employment opportunity employer. It does not discriminate on the basis race, religion, color, age, sex, marital status, national origin, sexual orientation, gender expression and identity, citizenship, disability, or veteran status.

Send resume, qualifications, writing samples and references (3) to:
Glen Squires, CEO
Washington Grain Commission
2702 W. Sunset Blvd Ste A
Spokane, Washington 99224
wgc@wagrains.org