Merchandiser
Anchor Ingredients is seeking merchandisers who share in the Company’s core beliefs of integrity, reliability and quality. The merchandiser would be responsible for originating and marketing specialty ingredients, including but not limited to the following: grains, seeds, oils, legumes, dried fruits/vegetables, nuts and snacks. Target markets include both human and pet food. Requirements include an ability to thrive in a fast paced environment, entrepreneurial spirit, focus on problem solving, an ability to work independently and strong analytical skills. Daily responsibilities would involve building both supplier and customer relationships, logistics, quality documentation and customer service. Please visit Anchor’s website to learn more – www.anchoringredients.com.