Position Information

The Extension Agent will work collaboratively with a team of Extension and research professionals and volunteers to provide innovative leadership for the McKenzie County Extension program. Primary duties will be to provide educational programs in agriculture, 4-H youth development, and community economic development and leadership. In agriculture, this includes the disciplines of farm business management/farm marketing, cropping systems, livestock systems, and horticulture. An area of subject matter emphasis from one of the disciplines will be determined by the person’s academic background and experience. Supervision is provided by the Extension District Director serving McKenzie County.

This is a full-time position, planning and delivering educational programs in McKenzie County and when appropriate, cooperatively in neighboring counties. Office base for this position is the McKenzie County office of the NDSU Extension Service located in Watford City, North Dakota.

This position includes, but is not limited to, the following responsibilities:

• Interpret and integrate pertinent research information, and teach, deliver, and evaluate educational programs in the fields of farm business management/farm marketing, cropping systems, livestock systems, and horticulture.
• Provide leadership, resource support and program coordination for agriculturally-related 4-H youth development-based programs with a measurable impact on enhancing life skills of youth, adults, and volunteers. The position will collaborate with the Family and Consumer Sciences Extension Agent, and Administrative Assistants to deliver the entire 4-H youth development program, including the development and implementation of volunteer recruitment, training and management systems.
• Conduct needs and issues identification processes that result in programs based on the needs of county citizens.
• Collaborate with NDSU professionals to develop interdisciplinary programs, some of which will be delivered on a community of interest or program team basis.
• Assist with communication with equal opportunity policies.
• Participate in professional development experiences offered by the NDSU Extension Service and other entities as appropriate.
• Perform other duties assigned in support of Extension programming.

Minimum Qualifications

1. Bachelor’s degree in an agricultural discipline related to the position responsibilities, and the academic capacity to enroll in a relevant graduate program in the future.
2. Skills that demonstrate knowledge and expertise in an agricultural discipline and the understanding necessary to effectively communicate the knowledge and application to other disciplines.
3. Innovative program development and educational design skills to assess needs and issues, and develop, deliver, and evaluate comprehensive learning experiences that help diverse youth and adult audiences enhance their lives and communities.
4. Information and technology skills necessary to reach and teach diverse audiences, work and communicate effectively, manage time and resources, and enhance one’s ability to find, evaluate, and disseminate information.
5. Ability to communicate effectively, both orally and in writing, with individuals, groups and through mass media.
6. Organizational management skills including the ability to conduct oneself professionally, be self-directed in the work environment, work flexible and extended hours, be comfortable with extensive travel, and manage time and resources (including grant writing) to efficiently accomplish the duties of the position.
7. Familiarity with various ethnic and socioeconomic audiences, an interest and ability to work with people of diverse backgrounds, and a commitment to the principles of diversity.
8. Personal vehicle and valid driver's license.

Preferred Qualifications

1. Master’s degree in an agricultural discipline.
2. Recent Extension Service work experience.
3. Working knowledge of and experience with 4-H and/or other youth programs.
4. Successful experience recruiting, selecting, training and motivating volunteers.
