In Memoriam – Dr. Chung S. Park
The department is sad to announce that Professor Chung Park, 74, passed away on Monday, January 18, 2016, following a battle with cancer. Funeral arrangements are pending. Please watch for additional details as they become available.

Chung’s research work focused on tumor cell development and the stair-step heifer development system for use in a variety of domestic animal species. His work was funded through commodity groups, state, and federal grants. He was well recognized in a variety of scientific circles, both nationally and internationally. Chung won numerous awards for his work, including the 2000 NDSU Faculty Lectureship.

Friday Afternoon Club – Larry Reynolds and Kendall Swanson, Coordinators
Facilitators: Larry Reynolds and Kendall Swanson

Topic: The Academic Career (using Larry Reynolds and Steve Smith from Texas A&M as examples)

Date/Time: January 29; 3:00 p.m.
Location: Hultz 104

If anyone is interested in facilitating the discussion for FAC, please contact Kendall Swanson.

Recent Publication
Little International Hall of Fame Banquet Tickets

are available in Hultz 102

Banquet Date: Friday, February 12, 2016
Time: Social at 5 p.m., Banquet at 6 p.m.
Location: Avalon West Event Center
Millennium Ballroom
2525 9th Avenue South, Fargo
Cost: $25 (must be paid at time of purchase)
Deadline to Purchase Tickets: January 29, 2016

---

Graduate Seminar – Sarah Wagner, Coordinator

There is no Graduate Seminar this week.

Speaker: Jordan Hieber, NDSU ANSC Graduate Student
Topic: A Review: Effects of Temperament and Acclimation to Handling on Reproductive Performance of Bos Taurus Beef Females

Jordan Hieber is originally from Ubly, MI. She graduated from NDSU in May 2014 with a B.S. degree in animal science. She is working on an M.S. degree in animal breeding and genetics which focusing on temperament evaluation in cattle, specifically evaluator bias and subjective measurements. Her advisor is Dr. Lauren Hanna.

Speaker: Tyler Frick, NDSU ANSC Graduate Student
Topic: Relationship Between Carcass Quality and Value

Date/Time: Thursday, January 28; 11:00 a.m.
Location: Hultz 104

Tyler graduated from Iowa State University in 2014 with a B.S. degree in animal science. Tyler is working on an M.S. degree in meat science under the direction of Dr. Rob Maddock. He is also the Assistant Meat Judging Team Coach.
Horse Judging Workshop
– Carrie Hammer (photos by Paige Brummond and Carrie Hammer)

A horse judging workshop was held January 16 and 17 on campus and at the Equine Center. Participants learned the basics during classroom lectures and then had the opportunity to observe actual horse judging at the Equine Center.

Topics included judging conformation, western pleasure, hunter under saddle, equitation, and reining. Participants learned about organizing and presenting oral reasons as well as tips and hints for coaching youth. Speakers included Shannon Eck, Tara Swanson, Erika Berg, Carrie Hammer, Matt Crouse, and Paige Brummond. Thirty-one adults and 86 youth from North Dakota, Minnesota, and Montana attended the workshop.