Animal Sciences News

Week of August 28, 2011

Animal Sciences Seminar – Kendall Swanson, Coordinator

Speakers: Dale Zetocha, Director, NDSU Technology Transfer Office
Jonathan Tolstedt, Licensing Associate, NDSU Technology Transfer Office
Joy Goswami Licensing Associate, NDSU Technology Transfer Office

Topic: NDSU Intellectual Property Basics

Date/Time: Friday, September 2; 3:00-4:00 p.m.

Place: Hultz 104

The major topics covered during the presentation – Basics of Patenting and Intellectual Property; Policy, Regulation and Agreements at NDSU; NDSU Technology Transfer Process.

James Magolski Presents Research

James Magolski, Ph.D. student in the department of Animal Sciences, recently attended the International Congress of Meat Science and Technology (ICoMST) in Ghent, Belgium, as a delegate for the United States. His presentation entitled, “Differences in Minolta color score and beef tenderness associated with feedlot stress and slaughter method,” was attended by 300 scientific delegates representing 35 countries.

Prior to the conference, James also attended a four-day course in advanced meat science hosted by Ghent University.

James is co-advised by Drs. David Newman and Eric Berg.
Alumnus Gene Odenbach Passes Away – Adapted from Bismarck Tribune, August 18, 2011

Gene Enoch Odenbach, 64, passed away August 15, 2011, under hospice care. A memorial service was held Saturday, August 20, at Redeemer Lutheran Church, Woodworth, North Dakota.

Gene was born at Woodworth on May 10, 1947, to Donald Sr. and Bernice (Brophy) Odenbach. He attended country school in Paris Township through seventh grade and graduated from Woodworth High School in 1965. Gene graduated with a bachelor’s degree in animal science and a minor in economics from North Dakota State University in Fargo, where he was active in the Saddle and Sirloin Club, a member of the NDSU Livestock Judging Team and a member of the Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity.

Gene is survived by his wife, Marlene; son Ryan, daughter Danette Welsh; brothers Donald Jr., Allen, and Robert (also an Animal Sciences graduate), sister Sally Sorawat; sister-in-law Sally Odenbach, and many beloved nieces and nephews. Gene has five grandchildren, Lydia Maryl, Lane Matthew, Grace Elizabeth, James Gene and Amelia DeAnna Odenbach.

Welcome Back Students Picnic Today! – Tara Swanson

The Welcome Back Picnic for Animal Science, Equine Science Pre-Vet, and Veterinary Technology students will be held on TODAY, in Shepperd Arena starting at 5:30 p.m.

A meal will be provided by Carnivore Catering and students will have the opportunity to meet faculty and learn about our student organizations. Volunteers are needed to serve the meal. We hope to see the department well represented at the picnic!

Do you have information for Animal Sciences News?
Email me at holly.erdmann@ndsu.edu