Camacho Elected to Regional Post – Ely Camacho
Ely Camacho was recently elected to a two-year term as a Graduate Director for the Western Section of the American Society of Animal Science (WSASAS. Some of the responsibilities of a Graduate Director are to attend ASAS sectional board meetings, provide a student perspective on the sectional board, plan social events and professional development activities for students at sectional meetings, and work with the national Graduate Directors to implement programs at the national and sectional level.

Ely is currently working on a Ph.D. under the direction of Dr. Kim Vonnahme. She is studying early nutritional impacts on uteroplacental blood flow and vascular reactivity in pregnant cows.

Alumni News – Kimberly Naprash, McKenzie County Extension Office
Calli (Wold) Thorne and her husband C.J. welcomed a baby girl into their family on Wednesday, July 27. Both Calli and baby Tylee Dakota are doing well!

Calli is a December 2008 graduate from NDSU Animal Sciences. She is currently the Extension Agent/Agriculture/Natural Resources in McKenzie County.

Cake and Punch
Monday, August 1
2:30 p.m., in Hultz 104
to say “good bye” to
Ben Williams and Dana Walsh