Graduate Seminar – Rob Maddock Coordinator

Speaker: Krista Wellnitz, ANSC Graduate Student

Topic: The Role of Red Meat in the American Diet

Date/Time: Friday, May 3, 2013; 3:00 p.m.

Location: Hultz 104

Krista grew up in Orfordville, WI, on a small dairy farm. She received her B.S. degree in animal science from the University of Wisconsin-Platteville in May 2011. She is pursuing her M.S. degree under the direction of Dr. Eric Berg.

This is the final seminar of the Spring Semester.

Vonnahme Research Featured – Janelle Quam, Assistant to the Vice President and Dean of the College of Agriculture, Food Systems, and Natural Resources

Check out “Research Profiles” featuring Dr. Kim Vonnahme on the revised North Dakota Agricultural Experiment Station (NDAES) website at: <http://www.ag.ndsu.edu/research/>. The website will feature a new profile approximately every 3 to 4 weeks.

“We want to be good stewards of agriculture. We want to create healthier livestock and reproductive performance in the uterus, to generate a better life.”

Kim Vonnahme

The website features information on Dr. Vonnahme’s research, why it matters, details of student involvement, and information about her, including a short biography.

Visiting Scholar – Correction

Last week’s newsletter indicated that Carolina has joined the department to work on her Ph.D. for the next year. Carolina’s last name was spelled incorrectly. Her name is Carolina Heller Perei. Her NDSU email is carolina.hellerperei@ndsu.edu. We apologize to Carolina for the mistake.
