NDSU Student Dies in Farm Accident

Michael Wehri, 19, of Mott, ND, died on Monday, June 10, as the result of a farm accident. Mike was very involved in Saddle and Sirloin Club at NDSU. He received the Outstanding Freshman Award from S/S and was to be the new member co-chair this coming fall.

Mike was the son of Dean and Kristen Wehri of Mott.

Recent Publications

Graduate Students Receive Travel Awards

Animal Sciences graduate students Casie Bass (top photo) and Ely Camacho (bottom photo) are the recipients of travel awards from the National Institutes of Health to attend the Aspen/Snowmass Perinatal Biology Symposium in Snowmass, Colorado, to be held August 24-27.

In an effort to include trainees as much as possible in the program, each woman has been scheduled to co-chair a session at the symposium. Casie will co-chair a session with Dr. Maureen Keller-Wood from the University of Florida and Ely will co-chair a session with Dr. Anna Grazul-Bilska.

Casie is a Ph.D. student studying under the direction of Anna Grazul-Bilska. Ely is a Ph.D. student studying under the direction of Kim Vonnahme.
NDSU to Co-Host Cattlemen’s Boot Camp – Gerald Stokka with Ellen Crawford, NDSU Agriculture Communication, June 12, 2013

NDSU, along with the American Angus Association, will host Cattlemen’s Boot Camp, June 25-26. The program will include a tour of the NDSU Beef Cattle Research Complex (BCRC) and the Ekre Ranch near Walcott. For additional information or to register, contact the American Angus Association at 816-383-5100 or visit http://www.angus.org.

ANSC Participates in Regional American National Cattlewomen’s Convention

https://www.facebook.com/pages/North-Dakota-CattleWomen/137935799553417

The region 3 and 7 convention of the American National Cattlewomen was held in Fargo on June 7 and 8. Participants from North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Kansas, and Nebraska were in attendance. Kasey Maddock Carlin coordinated the event and served as department host.

Kendall Swanson and student employee Megan Ruch gave a tour of the NDSU Beef Cattle Research Complex.

Eric and Paul Berg, along with Austen Germolus and Loren Baranko gave participants a taste of BBQ Boot Camp.