Graduate Seminar – Rob Maddock Coordinator

Speaker: Casie Bass, NDSU ANSC Graduate Student

Topic: In vivo effects of Arginine-treatment on ovarian angiogenesis and CL function within nutritionally compromised ewes

Date/Time: Friday, February 15, 2013; 3:00 p.m.

Location: Hultz 104

Extension Publications

A1238 Revised – Feeding Corn to Beef Cattle – Greg Lardy

AS1272 Revised – Handling Liquid Feed Commodities – Greg Lardy

V1630 – Calf Diarrhea (aka Scours) – Charlie Stoltenow

AS1624 Revised – Feeding Barley to Sheep – Greg Lardy and Reid Redden

These Extension bulletins are available at http://www.ag.ndsu.edu/ndsuag/livestock and will soon be available in print from Agriculture Communications in Morrill Hall, Room 7.
NDSU Judging Club Heifer Raffle – Justin Crosswhite

The NDSU Judging Club, which encompasses the Livestock, Meats and Dairy Judging Teams) is sponsoring a “Luck of the Draw” Heifer Raffle. The registered yearling heifer (Mac Zahara 75Z, registration number 685174) is 5/8 Saler and 3/8 Angus. She was born February 25, 2012, and was donated by MacDonald Ranches of Bismarck, ND.

$20/ticket or $100/6 tickets

To get your raffle ticket:
contact Whitney Hansen (701-721-4813) or Kara Scherbenske (701-321-0890)

Drawing will be held March 6, 2013

(Heifer may be exchanged for a cash prize)
Scenes from Little International

The 87th Little I was held February 8 and 9. About 200 students from schools across North Dakota and Minnesota attended. Students participated in livestock and crop judging, livestock showing, public speaking, hippology, and other events in Animal Sciences and Agricultural and Biosystems Engineering. The awards banquet honored Lyle Warner. A good time was had by all!

For many more images of Little I, go to the Animal Sciences Facebook page at https://www.facebook.com/NdsuAnimalSciencesDepartment?ref=hl.
“Our Roots Run Deep”