

Animal Sciences News

Week of August 24, 2014

Guest Seminar – Carl Dahlen, Seminar Coordinator

Speaker: Chris Boerboom, Director, NDSU Extension Service

Topic: NDSU Extension: Who We Are, What We Do

Date/Time: Tuesday, September 2; 1:00-2:00 p.m.

Location: Hultz Hall 104

Education

- Ph.D., 1989, Agronomy/Weed Science, University of Minnesota
- M.S., 1987, Agronomy/Weed Science, University of Minnesota
- B.S. 1984, Agronomy and Agricultural Economics, University of Minnesota

Professional Experience

- June 2012-present: Director, NDSU Extension Service
- January-May 2012: Interim Director, NDSU Extension Service
- January 2010-May 2012: Assistant Director and Program Leader of Agriculture and Natural Resources; District Director, Multicounty Program Unit 6, NDSU Extension Service
- July 2002-December 2009: Extension Weed Scientist and Professor, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- July 1997-June 2002: Extension Weed Scientist and Associate Professor, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- February 1994-June 1997: Extension Weed Scientist and Assistant Professor, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- August 1989-Feb. 1994: Extension Weed Scientist and Assistant Professor, Washington State University

Welcome back students!

Meet Our New Graduate Students

Ben Howard is a new master's student at NDSU working under the direction of Kasey Carlin. He has a B.S. in Animal Science from Missouri State University and a background working in the meat industry. Ben is from Eldon, MO. He likes hunting and fishing. Ben's office is in Hultz 108, his phone number is 231-7630, and his email is benjamin.howard@ndsu.edu.

Mary Rodenhuis (pronounced Road-n-hoos) is from Needham, IN. She received her Bachelor's degree in animal agribusiness from Purdue University. Her interests are in beef cattle and sheep. Upon receiving her M.S. degree, she hopes to become an Extension educator. Mary's advisor is Kendall Swanson. Mary's office is also in Hultz 108 and her phone number 231-7630. Mary's email is mary.rodenhuis@ndsu.edu.

Happy Birthday Mavis!

(Text and photo from Leah Maertens)

Thursday, August 28, is Mavis' 10th birthday. She works hard at the NDSU Dairy, so she is currently enjoying a vacation while waiting for her calf to arrive. She wasn't feeling the party hat and refused to wear it.

