Stressed out?
Need a break?

NDSU students are welcome to come to Shepperd Arena to groom and brush horses to help de-stress on Wednesday, October 22, from 3:30-5:00 p.m. Close toe shoes are recommended and highly encouraged.

This activity is offered as part of Promoting Mental Health in the NDSU Community week (October 20-24).
Briana Ferguson Begins Graduate Studies

Briana Ferguson is from Kerkhoven, MN, where she grew up on a small farm raising sheep and beef cattle. She earned her B.S. in animal science from NDSU and has experience working in the swine industry since graduating. Briana’s advisor is Kim Vonnahme.

Briana is housed in Hultz 108, her phone number is 231-7630, and her email is briana.ferguson@ndsu.edu.

This Place is a Zoo! – Stacey Ostby

Thirty students and 3 instructors in the NDSU Veterinary Technology program took a field trip to the Chahinkapa Zoo in Wahpeton on Friday, October 17. The group enjoyed a two-hour behind-the-scenes tour which included inside looks at the animal enclosures, enrichment items, training demonstrations, and feeding information.
