about

The Equine Care and Rehabilitation Internship at Days End Farm Horse Rescue (DEFHR) gives interns a unique opportunity to work with neglected and abused horses seized by animal control authorities and law enforcement.

Interns in this program can expect to gain significant equine husbandry experience, learn how to recognize equine cruelty and neglect, as well as receive training in basic rehabilitation and horse psychology. Participants will be caring for a population of 50-90 horses of all breeds, ages, and backgrounds.

This program is tailored to those seeking careers in equine management, equine veterinary services, equine rescue and rehabilitation or equine advocacy.
