Arabian Horse Life Magazine Freelance Blogger Job Description

Do you love writing and have a creative mind-set? Are you a self-starter and want to get an “IN” in the publishing arena? Then we want you! Arabian Horse Association’s Arabian Horse Life blog (www.arabianhorselife.com) is looking for a non-paid blogger to create a weekly blog posting. Blog post topics will vary in subject matter such as industry news, topics pertaining to Arabian horses and lifestyle themes. The blogger will be given topics to write about each week, but will also have the opportunity to come up with original content. Blogging intern will also be responsible for gathering all content for the blog post (i.e. pictures, videos, etc.). The blogging intern must be familiar with AP style writing, Google Drive and Microsoft Word. Intern will need to provide own equipment to complete tasks (i.e. video camera, computer, cell phone, etc.). Two open positions are available and are both remote. Please send your resume, cover letter, and samples of writing and/or video blog posts to michelle.bartlett@arabianhorses.org. Remember, we are a team of fun, driven individuals so we are looking for the same in a team member that is creative and who enjoys having fun, so make sure to wow us with your submission!

This is NOT a paid internship. Internships last for 12 months

Interested parties should contact Michelle Bartlett
Arabian Horse Association
10805 East Bethany Drive
Aurora, Colo. 80014
303.696.4500
michelle.bartlett@arabianhorses.org