Points to consider as you apply for the Burleigh County 4-H Ambassador program

■ The Burleigh County 4-H Ambassadors have five general purposes:

- Assist in the planning of county 4-H youth programs
- Secure opportunities for youth in 4-H
- Promote 4-H to all people
- Improve the 4-H youth program through leadership
- Act as a sounding board for 4-H youth ideas and concerns

■ Ambassadors will gain:

- Leadership opportunities and skills
- Teamwork successes
- Personal confidence
- Training in recreation, technology, facilitation, team building, etc.

■ Ambassadors need to:

- Share ideas
- Make new friends

■ Ambassadors must:

- Be 16 years old when you apply.
- Participate in no less than five designated activities per year. These activities may include: Extension Youth Conference; Ambassador retreats; and county, district or regional level activities that promote and support the 4-H program in North Dakota, such as various leadership workshops, State Fair, judging events, 4-H camps, county fairs, 4-H youth activity days, Communication Arts events and county awards nights.
