Position Information

The Extension Agent will work collaboratively with a team of Extension and research professionals and volunteers to provide innovative leadership for the Stark-Billings Counties Extension family and community wellness program. The primary duty is to teach educational programs in nutrition, health, wellness, human development and family science, personal and family finance, community and leadership development and 4-H youth development to adult and youth audiences in Stark County and eastern Billings County. Supervision is provided by the Extension District Director serving Stark-Billings Counties.

This is a full-time position planning and delivering educational programs in Stark-Billings Counties and when appropriate, programming cooperatively in neighboring counties. This position is based in the Stark County office of NDSU Extension, which is located in Dickinson, ND.

This position includes, but is not limited to, the following responsibilities:

Educate

- Teach, deliver, and evaluate programs in nutrition, health, wellness, human development and family science, personal and family finance and 4-H youth development to adult and youth audiences.

Successful Extension programs will require you to:

- Conduct needs assessment and issues identification that result in programs based on the needs of county citizens.
- Interpret and integrate pertinent research information into educational programs.
- Develop expertise in a subject matter competency area, and to plan, implement and deliver educational programs on a county and/or communities-of-interest basis.
- Evaluate and market the impact of the educational programs delivered.
- Cultivate a strong relationship with and use multiple media outlets and resources.
- Support the 4-H youth development-based educational programs with a measurable impact on enhancing life skills of youth, adults, and volunteers.
- Provide community and leadership development education related to the family and community wellness program.
- Participate in professional development experiences offered by NDSU Extension and other entities as appropriate.

Collaborate and Facilitate

- Cooperate and collaborate with local, county and state agencies, organizations and businesses to enhance family and community wellness leadership and programming opportunities, and utilize stakeholder input to formulate program plans to address issues that affect people throughout their life span.
- Collaborate with NDSU professionals to develop interdisciplinary programs, some of which will be delivered on a community of interest or program team basis.
- Develop and implement volunteer recruitment and provide training and management systems. This may include working with the Family and Community Education or other groups.

Other

- Assure compliance with equal opportunity policies.
- Perform other duties assigned in support of Extension programming.
- Some travel required.

Behavioral expectations include:

- Work ethically, with integrity, and respect confidentiality.
- Contribute to an environment of cooperative, supportive and positive working relationships with co-workers and clientele. Promote a healthy work environment and support everyone's efforts to succeed.
- Resolve differences constructively. Use tact and courtesy at all times.
- Use effective time management. Be prompt in attendance for work and meetings and be fully engaged.
- Exhibit positive attitude, image and personal motivation. Be a professional at all times.

Minimum Qualifications
