

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

KEVIN CRAMER
NORTH DAKOTA

May 14, 2014

Dear Chris and NDSU Extension Service,

Congratulations on the 100th anniversary of the NDSU Extension Service office. I regret not being able to join you in Fargo for the celebration.

North Dakota is comprised of many rural areas and small communities. At its very core, it's the people who live here which make the state a great place to live. Today, NDSU Extension Service has broadened its horizons beyond rural life and the agricultural needs of the State. Your staff is now helping prepare individuals to succeed throughout every aspect of life by ensuring they have access to the programs, resources, and technology they need. As a result of your support, we are seeing the quality of life for North Dakotans improved and communities strengthened.

Best wishes to another 100 years!

Sincerely,
