

Crop Management Field School

Thursday, June 16, 2016

NDSU Carrington
Research Extension Center
Carrington, N.D.

Audience and Objectives

The target audience is crop advisers, but farmers and others with agricultural interests are welcome to attend.

The school's objective is to provide updates, using field demonstrations and research trials, on crop, soil and pest management recommendations.

Preregistration

Preregistration is required.

To enroll, submit the completed form and a $75 fee to the Carrington Research Extension Center by June 13. The fee is $100 if preregistering after June 13.

Preregistration also may be completed electronically at the following website: www.tinyurl.com/CRECstore.

The number of participants is limited to 50. Registrations will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. Participants will receive reference materials, one meal and refreshments.

Five and one-half continuing education unit credits for certified crop advisers (CCAs) will be available.

The information at the Crop Management Field School is for educational purposes.
