

NDSU Lambing Workshop

February 12, 2019

Shepherding a New Generation: Succeed During Lambing 2019

For new and experienced shepherds to learn more to manage your flock. Topics will include: wool preparation and care, ewe health, predator control, lamb nutrition and marketing.

Presenters:

- Travis Hoffman, Ph.D., NDSU Extension Sheep Specialist
- Cindy Wolf, DVM, O'Neill Family Farm, Rushford, MN
- Cody Krause, USDA Biological Services
- Karl Hoppe, Ph.D., NDSU Carrington REC

On-site lambing barn management topics include:

- Managing lambing difficulty
- Lamb survival and health
- Ewe nutrition and disease
- Making a lambing checklist

Tuesday

Feb. 12, 2019

10 a.m. Speakers

12 p.m. Lunch

1 p.m. Producer Tour

Contact:

Dr. Travis Hoffman
701-231-Baaa (2222)
Travis.W.Hoffman@ndsu.edu

NDSU Carrington REC

663 US Hwy 281, Carrington

&

A & L Ranch, Brent & Codi Kuss

1095 55th Ave SE, Woodworth

(on-farm visit in afternoon)

Sponsored by:

North Central SARE

North Dakota Lamb & Wool

Producers Association

NDSU

EXTENSION

www.ag.ndsu.edu/extension