Training for aspiring, elected and appointed leaders serving on boards, councils and committees

NDSU | EXTENSION

Do you know how many taps of the gavel you need to make to restore order to a meeting?

Do you know how to amend a motion?

Is your organization subject to open meeting laws?

Do you know the best method to deal with conflict in board meetings?

Lead Local

As an aspiring, elected or appointed leader serving on a board, council or committee, would you like to:

- Feel better prepared to serve as an effective board, council or committee member?
- Recognize the components of an effective meeting?
- Learn basic parliamentary procedure and how to use it?
- Understand different personality styles and how people can work together effectively?
- Use effective tools when dealing with conflict?
- Learn about the importance of ethical leadership and its impact on you as a leader, as well as the citizens you represent?

If so, please consider attending an innovative, one-day workshop.

"I had been thinking of running for City Council for some time, and after taking the Lead Local program, it really gave me that extra confidence to move forward with that decision. The process of running for and winning the City Council seat was a great experience, and I'm using the tools from Lead Local to help me be the best representative I can be."
