

2014 4-H Banquet and Awards Night

November 16, 2014

News Release

The McIntosh County 4-H Annual Banquet was held on Sunday, November 16 in Ashley. At the banquet, new officers were elected for the 4-H Council including Sara Gross, President; Missy Walth, Vice President; and Lori Gropper, Treasurer. 4-H members also received awards including discs, trophies and plaques for participation in various events throughout the year. The following are the county awards which were given out to members based on a competitive application process - Damian Clements (Science and Technology), Cassidy Walth (Drawing), Ashley Muller (Nutrition & Horticulture), Addie Schnabel (Swine), Ellen Schnabel (Flower Arranging), Kelli Gropper (Pets & Sheep), Alex Ruff and Rykan Salwei (Woodworking). Damian Clements, Addie and Ellen Schnabel, Paul Schumacher, Colton Martz and Cora Schaunaman were given discs for participating in communication arts at the district competition. Ellen and Addie also received discs for participating in Consumer Judging at the State Fair. Alex Ruff, Dylan Wolff, Adam Wolff and Cassidy Walth received discs in archery and Paul Schumacher & Damian Clements received discs for being the outstanding static exhibitors (having the most projects) at the county fair. Members also received their plaques and trophies from the champion static and livestock projects exhibited during the Tri-County Fair in Wishek. 4-H leaders were acknowledged as well for their years of service. One year – Katie Pinke, Sonia Salwei, and Brenda Dohn; two years – Sara Gross and Missy Walth; four years – Pam Schnabel and Kristi Bender; fourteen years – Coreen Schumacher; and seventeen years – Cindy Ketterling. We would like to thank the sponsors: Hometown Credit Union, Security State Bank, Farm Credit Services, McIntosh County Bank, and First Community Credit Union. It was a fun-filled evening where 4-H members could come together and celebrate a job well done!
