Lesson Outline: Day 1
- Go over the Consumer bill of Rights of 1962 and the Expanded Bill of Rights of 1985 with students.
- Explain that these rights are recognized in over 100 countries.
- Ask students where they might find information on consumer rights in North Dakota. List these on the board.
- Then explain that they are going on the internet with a partner and look under the three listed websites and answer the questions that are on their worksheet.
• Hand in the worksheet at the end of the hour.

Day 2
• Break students into groups of three or four, depending on the class size. Give each a consumer problem, that is teacher chosen, from the web site: www.consumerlawpage.com
• Give students the direction that they are to read the consumer information and discuss what it as to say within their group.
• The student will design a poster to go along with a verbal explanation of their consumer problem.

Day 3
• Each group of students will give their presentations to the class using their poster to help illustrate the information of their consumer problem.
• Students will be responsible to take notes and be responsible for the information for a quiz.
