Ladies Day Out Featuring:

Val Wagner, Monango, ND - "What's Your Gold?"

Val farms with her husband south of Jamestown near Monango, ND. There they raise corn, soybeans, wheat, alfalfa, Red Angus/Simmental cross commercial beef cattle and a great crop of four amazing, yet busy boys. They are hoping to pass on their family farm to the next generation one day soon. Val coordinates Common Ground North Dakota, volunteers for several local, state and national organizations and one day hopes to find all the time she has wasted when she was younger. In her spare time she works as a paralegal in a rural, general practice law firm.

Rodney Nelson - Raised on a ranch on the Mouse River near Towner, North Dakota. Rodney, the misses and their two children have lived on the Sims Creek ranch near Almont, North Dakota since 1984. In addition to ranching, Rodney works as a part-time brand inspector, horse trainer and aging rodeo performer. Audiences throughout America know Rodney as a popular rural humorist, entertainer, banquet speaker, and columnist.

Rodney Nelson's regular 'Up Sims Creek' column appears bi-weekly in the 'County Living' section of 'Farm and Ranch Guide'.
