

Rules Governing activity on the Mouse River State Forest

All State Forests are open to the general public. All State Forests are open to hunting. There are no developed campgrounds on the Mouse River State Forest. However, backcountry camping is allowed on all State forests.

Visitors must obey all posted signs and are subject to all federal, state and local laws.

Camping:

- No fee is required for day use or backcountry camping where all supplies are carried in and all trash is carried out.
- Camping in excess of 14 days and leaving equipment or campsites unattended for more than 24 hours is prohibited.
- Any vehicle, equipment or camping supplies left unattended for more than 24 hours may be confiscated by the North Dakota Forest Service and held for a period of 30 days. At the end of this period said property may be disposed of by the North Dakota Forest Service.

Pets:

- Pets are allowed provided they are kept on a leash and personally attended at all times. In mowed or maintained areas, owners must clean up after their pets.

Fires:

- Lighting of fires is allowed in cooking grills and campground rings. Leaving fires unattended is prohibited.
- Lighting of any fire on the State Forests is subject to state and local restrictions during periods of high fire danger.
- Fires must be completely extinguished before leaving.

Fireworks:

- The lighting of fireworks is prohibited on all State Forests unless authorized by the State Forester.

Organized Group Activities:

- Organized group activities attended by more than 10 persons are prohibited without the permission of the State Forester.

Hunting & Firearms:

- Hunting is permitted (during designated hunting seasons set by the ND Game and Fish Department) on all State Forests.
- All hunters are subject to federal, state and local laws governing hunting and the use of firearms.
- Target practice and sighting of guns is prohibited on all State forests. All firearm use is subject to federal, state, and local laws.

Tree Stands:

- No person may construct or use a permanent tree stand or permanent steps to a tree stand on any State Forest.
- Portable tree stands and portable steps, screw-in steps, and natural tree stand may be used. Portable tree stands and portable steps are defined as those which are held to the tree with ropes, straps, cables, chains, or bars. Screw-in steps are those that are screwed into the tree by hand without the aid of any tools. Ladder type stands which lean against the tree are portable stands. A notched board placed in a tree crotch is a portable stand. Natural stands include crotches, trunks, down trees, etc., where no platform is used.
- Tree stands do not preempt hunting right in the vicinity of the tree stand.
- Tree stands and steps may not be put up before August 20th of the year, and they shall be taken down by January 10th of the following year. Stands and steps not removed by the 10th of January are subject to removal and confiscation by the North Dakota Forest Service.

Baiting:

- Except as otherwise provided herein, no person may place or use bait for attracting, luring, feeding, or habituating wildlife to the bait location for any purpose on a State Forest. Bait includes grains, minerals, salt, fruits, vegetables, hay or any other natural or manufactured feeds. Bait does not include the use of lures, scents, or liquid attractants for hunting, or management activities of the agency.
- A person may use bait to lure and take furbearers when engaged in lawful trapping activities.

Motorized Vehicles:

- The use of all motorized vehicles is restricted to constructed roads, and parking areas unless otherwise posted. Motorized equipment must obey all posted speed limits and regulations.
- Multi-use trails may be posted as not open to motorized vehicles; however these trails are open to snowmobiles as long as there is a minimum of 4 inches of packed snow and unless otherwise posted.

Use of Watercraft:

- Watercrafts may not be left unattended for more than 24 hours without the permission of the State Forester or his appointed representative. All watercrafts are subject to the regulations for watercraft and watercraft use as set by federal and state laws.

Removal and Destruction of Property:

- Removal of any object, natural or created, such as plants, animals (except those acquired through hunting or fishing), and signs are prohibited without the permission of the State Forester.
- Commercial removal of trees including removal for firewood is prohibited without the permission of the State Forester.

- Gathering of dead and downed wood for use in campfires is permitted.
- Berries and fruit may be picked for non-commercial use except where posting prohibits the activity.
- State Forest property may not be destroyed or defaced.

Dumping:

- Dumping or throwing of any trash or refuse except in authorized containers is prohibited.
- Disposal of personal garbage in State Forest containers by individuals other than those recreating on the State Forests is prohibited.
- Abandonment of vehicles or other personal property is prohibited.
- Camper holding tanks shall not be dumped within State Forest boundaries.

Private Property and Structures:

- No person or organization shall construct or maintain any building, cabin, dock, fence, beehive, billboard, sign or other structure without the permission of the State Forester.

Cropping, Haying, and Commercial Enterprises:

- No person shall conduct any cropping, haying, or other commercial enterprise including guide service for a fee on the State Forests without the permission of the State Forester.
- Posting signs, distributing literature, advertising, soliciting or transacting any business or commercial enterprise on the State Forest is prohibited without permission of the State Forester.

Animal Trespass:

- Livestock (domesticated cattle, goats, sheep, etc.) shall not be permitted on any State Forest except as provided for by a grazing permit issued by the State Forester.

Agency Work:

- Not obeying Forest Service personnel, using profanity or injury to personnel is prohibited. Violators will be subject to immediate eviction from the State Forest, as well as, subject to prosecution under other federal and state laws. These rules and regulations shall not apply to activities sponsored by or performed by authorized personnel.
