Summer Internship Opportunity

Responsibilities

Work with farmers in many aspects throughout the summer, including scouting fields, taking soil/tissue tests, chemical deliveries, and other agronomy related tasks.

Qualifications

Hard working, motivated individual with a desire and ability to work with many different personalities of people. Agricultural background or course related classes are beneficial but not required. Scouting requires a lot of moving and walking

Employment Period

From end of spring semester to beginning of fall semester. We will work with you and your schedule.

You will gain hands on experience in many different aspects of the agriculture industry. This position usually qualifies for a course related internship requirement.

Contact

Sean Polley
Cell: (218)-201-4837
Office: (218)-437-6634

Or send cover letter and resume to argylecoop@yahoo.com