Also Present: Ronda Gripentog, Deb Evenson, Millie Steckler and Chandra Langseth,

President Skoog called the meeting to order. Pledges were recited. Minutes from the Jan 2020 meeting were read. Motion by Beyer, second by Goroski to approve the minutes. Carried.

Treasurer's report was reviewed. Motion to approve treasurer's report by Krier, second by Beyer. Carried

Old Business:

1. Post Event Updates
  - a. Family, Fun and Fitness- Numbers were down by a lot this year. There were not many 4-H kids making it hard to justify. Questioning if it is too close to Skills Day.
2. Spring Award Application- EYC- update it will be online/zoom, more info to come on cost.

New Business:

1. State 4-H Events- Hoping for more guidance to come. District Communication Arts is June 1, will be virtual; Consumer Decision Making- new classes should be available on May 29. State Communication Arts will be live but not sure of time line.
2. YQCA- Hoping to have 2 classes before Achievement Days
3. Achievement Days- Scheduled July 10-11. Plan for large animals first followed by poultry/rabbits. Horse show will be Friday night. Cloverbuds in the incentive program can still do 2 exhibits. Possible differences may include face coverings required, hand sanitizer available. Do we purchase face coverings or require people to bring their own.
4. Awards Banquet: October 4
5. Raffle- Ready to print, plan to tie it into the awards program with selling Sept, drawing in October.
6. Record Books- Discussed meeting requirements, possible leniency for number of meetings due to schedule changes this spring. Also leniency on County events. Possibly use zoom showmanship videos for incentive program. Motion by Beyer- "Motion to wave county event for year, leaders to work with club members to meet other requirements and leniency will be given for requirements for this 4-H year.", second by Goroski. Carried.
7. Updates: New bylaws are on the website. Chandra updated on judging teams- Crop judging- Marisa Mumm, Ina Gauslow, Ryan Steger, Ashley Steger. Livestock Judging- Caitlynn Krump, Adrianna Krump, Kenadi David

Next meeting will be Wed September 9 @ 5:30pm
Meeting was adjourned.
