Small Trees With BIG Impact

Tom Kalb
North Dakota State University
tom.kalb@ndsu.edu

Thanks to Dale Herman, Todd West, Greg Morgenson and Ed Hasselkus

Crabapple

- Most popular small tree
- Hardy
- Abundant blooms
- Resists diseases
- Persistent fruit

‘Donald Wyman’

‘Adams’
Small Trees With BIG Impact

- ‘Prairifire’
- ‘Red Jewel’
- ‘Louisa’
- Japanese Tree Lilac
  - Great urban tree
  - Grows in poor and alkaline soil
  - Tolerant of salt
  - “Fragrant” blooms in June
- Hawthorn
  - “Fragrant” flowers
  - Glossy green leaves
  - Bright fruit
  - Wildlife habitat
  - Zone 4

Bailey Nurseries, Inc.
Small Trees With BIG Impact

- Cockspur

- 'Crusader'

- Pagoda Dogwood
  - Tolerates shade, prefers moist soil
  - Zone 3/4
  - Horizontal branching habit
  - All-season color

- 'Golden Showers'
Small Trees With BIG Impact

Serviceberry
- All-season interest
- Great fall color
- Tolerates partial shade
- Zone 3
Small Trees With BIG Impact

Mountainash

Ornamental pear

‘Korean Sun’

‘Hot Wings’ Tatarian maple

Hophornbeam

Chokecherry
‘Goldspur’ Amur chokecherry

‘Black Hills’ White spruce

‘Tannenbaum’ Mugo pine

Resources

Online:
- Herman, D. North Dakota Tree Handbook.
- Zeleznik, J. North Dakota Tree Selector.
- Bailey Nurseries. Image Library.

Other:
- Dirr, M. Manual of Woody Landscape Plants.

Photo Credits

This presentation is provided freely and for information purposes only.

Many photos were provided by Bailey Nurseries, Inc. Other photos were downloaded at www.flickr.com and made available under Creative Commons licenses specified by the photographers: keeval99, Rob Amends, Dendronica cerulea, Julie Falk, Paul Moody, Phillip Merritt, Ulrich Kersting, Iain Turner, Richard Griffen, Gillie Rhodes, BlueRidgeKitties, Dayna Bateman, chickeninthewoods, Cody Hough, mwms1916. Ken Whytock, AditStargazer, dbarronossa, CR1010, Steven Severingham, Gertrud K., Katja Schulz, Marlylle Soveran, Kai Yan and Joseph Wong.