March 14 – noon – Extension Office

Attendees: Jodi Kjellberg, Tiffiney Dick, Ann Marks, Megan Karlowsky, Lori Helm, Bonnie Hofmann, Alicia Harstad, Christina Rittenbach, Robin Barnes

INFORMAL MEETING – no formal agenda, just a call to confirm consumer decision making and clothing revue contest information and get volunteers for communication arts contest.

Previous minutes were read and approved

Volunteer names for door monitors at the communication arts contest on the 18th were Mikaela or Jim Cofield, Morgan Well, Dani Schmoker, Megan Scott. Ann Marks volunteered. Robin will call around.

Consumer Decision Making (CDM) / Clothing Revue (CR) contest will be held May 6th. The registration forms will be sent out April 2nd and the deadline to enter will be April 25th. It was noted that the age breakdown should be on the registration form, along with food allergy notification and special accommodations requests. It was decided to keep the award money paid out the same as last year and to give the judges a $10 gift card to DQ. If funds are needed, the YSD has those funds from the lefse sale available. Practices will also be set up before the meet for CDM sometime in April, hopefully having at least 2, with more if the desire is there. The state will have a group think portion for the senior division – it was decided not to have one this year at ours.

Judges suggested:

Clothing Revue – Jeanine Hofmann – 320-6720

Joan Enderle

Janet Well

Candace Dempsey

CDM – Joel Lemur

Jenny Vandehoven

Austin Dockter

Sara Hatlewick

Clay Hatlewick

Deb Hatlewick

Robin will contact and get the registration forms together, send them out for approval, and get it in the mail to all the families on April 2 or 3rd.
