Who should attend?
This program is for families who want to shape the future ownership of their family farm or ranch – the family legacy – whether that is transferring a viable business to the next generation or determining how to divide farm/ranch assets.

Even if you have attended other transition, estate or succession planning classes, consider attending this program to get a start on your succession plan.

Past participants have said:
“It is often hard to start the conversation and through this workshop we now have the tools.”
“Very interesting, made me so much more aware of the importance of planning.”
“Excellent and valuable info, love the work-book and tools we can take back to family.”
“Having our son register us for this program was the best Christmas gift we ever received.”

Design Your Succession Plan is a multisession workshop developed to help families:

- Get started by beginning work on your plan at the workshop
- Open lines of communication in the family to create a shared vision for extending the family business into the next generation
- Work with professionals to construct a plan and documents that put the family’s vision into action

For more information, contact:

Or www.ag.ndsu.edu/succession
carrie.johnson.1@ndsu.edu

Funding assistance received from:
NDSU Extension Service
North Dakota Annie’s Project
North Dakota Stockmen’s Foundation

Succession Planning Workshop for Farm and Ranch Families

Offered across North Dakota

Business planning
Retirement planning
Transition planning
Estate planning
Design Your Succession Plan
Empowering families to get started on their succession plan

The first step is the hardest. Creating a succession plan takes time, effort, family communication and working with professionals. Design Your Succession Plan will help you explore what you want for your business, how to discuss it in the family and how to get started creating a succession plan. It also will help you choose and prepare to work with professionals who will make the plan legal and viable.

This program will explore the four components of succession planning: planning for your business, retirement, transition and estate.

You will be prepared to communicate, plan, vision, write and shape the legacy of your family farm/ranch business, as well as save hundreds of dollars by completing these crucial planning steps before visiting with professionals.

You will receive a resource binder and workbook to use during and after the sessions. Starting the workbook during class will give you a jumpstart on your succession plan. When you leave the program, you will be motivated to continue communicating and working on the family farm/ranch legacy.

Registration
Preregistration is required for this program and seating is limited so register early. Contact the NDSU Extension Service county office for the site you are interested in attending. The schedule and registration information can be found at www.ag.ndsu.edu/succession.

Fees for this workshop are structured to encourage family members to participate together. The registration fee of $125 for the first family member covers the cost of meeting expenses and includes a resource binder and workbook. Additional family members may attend for $50 each which includes a workbook. Additional resource binders may be purchased for $75 each.

Design Your Succession Plan is delivered in two or three sessions or as one full-day session, depending on the site. Attendance at all sessions is necessary. This program will be taught by NDSU Extension agents and specialists, and participants will be guided through activities in their workbook. Video and other activities will be used to generate discussion on the many family and business issues families face when designing a succession plan.

Materials developed for this course are available only to registered attendees.